LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

How is your Lent going so far? In changing the circumstances and order of our lives a bit, perhaps we can hear God's voice more clearly and drink more deeply of graced moments we experience. Having God as a friend always involves several things. First, there is God's call. We become attuned to the echo of God's voice in the depth of our souls calling and beckoning us to listen. Second, there is a request. We begin to see that God asks us to do certain things, to order our lives a particular way, and become more intentional in the choices we make. Third, there is trust. Do we trust this call and request? Trust commits us to the relationship and makes a claim on who we are. Finally, we are asked to act. We find ourselves acting, not in the way we used to, but in a transformed, more enlightened way. Things seem clearer and all that is around us shines with the brilliance of God's presence. God's call came through a cloud, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him," This is the call and the request. Can we give God our trust and do as God asks?

Subscribe to Arkansas Catholic

God is telling the story. Arkansas Catholic is here to share it with you.

Pope Francis has called for a missionary transformation of the Church so the Diocese of Little Rock made a decision last year to make the digital version of Arkansas Catholic free for everyone in our diocese thanks in part to your support of the Catholic Arkansas Sharing Appeal.

The award-winning weekly newspaper of the Diocese of Little Rock offers complete print and digital subscriptions.

The print edition is delivered to your mailbox every week. Subscriptions are only $30 a year ($28 for seniors). Pick up a subscription envelope or call (501) 664-0125.

Or you can get Arkansas Catholic Digital the same day it's published on your computer and most smart devices. Postal delays are no longer a problem.

1. Log on to www.digital.arkansas-catholic.org and sign up for free.
2. Click the red "Sign Up" link.
3. Register for your free account and set up your password.
4. Log in and you now have access to the digital edition, plus all issues back to 2002.

Every Tuesday afternoon you will get an email with a link to access the latest edition.

February is Kindness Month in our community.

It's not too late to do one of these kind things:

- Do your neighbor a favor. Pick up the trash blowing through his/her yard or help with something the neighbor can't do alone.
- Bring treats to your local fire or police station.
- Show up on time and be kind.
- Write a letter to a good friend or to someone in the military, expressing appreciation for their role in your life.
- Give old blankets, sheets, and towels to the local animal shelter.
- Add a positive comment to the conversation if the chatter at school or at work becomes negative.
- Pray for someone.
- Phone, text or email a friend, letting them know you appreciate them.
- Offer to help someone with a chore. This could be something as simple as carrying in groceries, doing the dishes when it's not your turn, or raking leaves.

Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no fuller on earth could bleach them.

- Mk 9:2-3

LITURGICAL LIFE

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading

God's request of Abraham to sacrifice his beloved son Isaac seems cruel from our modern perspective. Yet Abraham's obedience rendered divine blessings. Do you think you have such depth of faith?

Second Reading

Paul tries to reassure the Christians in Rome of God's divine providence in our lives. As we continue the Lenten journey, can you recall when have you felt God's protection and comfort?

Gospel Reading

We hear Mark's account of the apostles' witness of the transfiguration of Jesus. How difficult do you think it was for them not to share this event with anyone until after Jesus rose from the dead?
