WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Question: I've noticed that when I go to Mass at different parishes, sometimes people say and do different things. Why is that?

Answer: The Mass in its current form has taken shape over the course of 2,000 years. Over time, traditions, structures, and prayers have been put into place. There are certain rubrics for the Mass that are normative wherever you go. This means you could attend Mass in Malawi or Thailand or Italy and still watch the same basic liturgy unfold, even if you don't understand the language. There may be some cultural differences from place to place, things that aren't specifically listed. For example, in the United States most people go up for Communion in a nice neat line. In Europe, everyone gets up around the same time. It's a bit of a free-for-all!

Some people might take it upon themselves to change things individually. People may not like something that feels too "liberal" or "conservative," and they may take a well-meaning stance in the opposite direction. When people (including the presiders) do things that are distracting or change the liturgy, it introduces an element that breaks the unity of the assembled community. The important thing to remember is that we gather as the Body of Christ to celebrate the Eucharist. If you are confused, ask! If you are frustrated, pray for the spirit of charity.

CATECHETICAL SUNDAY IS NEXT WEEK

How are parents, the primary catechists of their children, recognized on Catechetical Sunday?

Parents are truly the primary catechists of their children. They prepare the soil and plant the first seeds of faith. On Catechetical Sunday, we not only highlight the work of catechists in parishes and schools, but we also commend parents and guardians and encourage them to take seriously their role of making their Catholic households a place where faith is passed on to the next generation. This is why the rite of blessing of catechists used on Catechetical Sunday includes an optional blessing of parents and guardians.

SAFETY FIRST

If you are in the church during the week, please make sure all lights you turned on are turned off and all doors are securely closed and locked before you leave.

We welcome all visitors to St. Andrew's Catholic Church this weekend.

We hope you enjoy your stay in the Ozarks, and may God protect you on your trip home.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Jesus was the king, the Messiah that God's people had been waiting for. In today's Gospel reading, the disciples were confused. If Jesus was the king, why was he saying he would die soon? Jesus' friends did not understand yet that by dying on the cross, Jesus would save them from their sins.

Can you re-draw the little picture into the big box? Look at the lines in the small boxes and draw them in the big boxes below.

On a sheet of your own paper, draw a picture of you doing something nice for someone else.

PRAYER

Dear God, thank you for coming to save me from my sins.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

With your family, talk about what you would enjoy if you were a king or queen. Tell how Jesus was different from other kings.

While you color this picture, think about what Jesus and Peter talked about in today's Gospel.
