PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of St. Andrew's Catholic Church is to carry on the ministry of Jesus Christ, as members of His living body, the Church, to bring the Kingdom of God into the world through evangelization, worship, religious education, and service in our families, in our parish, and in our community.

Breaking the Stewardship Mold

Have you noticed how we always tend to pigeonhole one another — and ourselves? “I could never serve on the Parish Council. That’s for Rick and Ellen and that whole group of people who have done it for years.” “Greg takes care of faith formation in the parish — he always has. He doesn’t need my help.” “I can’t afford to give the big bucks like those families who sit up front can. My offering wouldn’t matter even if I did increase it.”

Thinking like this is a good indication that we aren’t in conversation with God about what His will is for our lives. If we have already decided what we are and are not meant to do, we aren’t likely to pray over it, to discern it.

We have to be open to the spirit of the Lord wherever it leads us, regardless of what we or others have come to expect from us. We human beings come to believe that we are such good judges of what others can offer — or what we ourselves can offer. But God has plans for us to which we aren’t privy. God calls everyone to serve Him in the way that pleases Him best, and only He can decide what that is. Everyday Stewardship demands a continual accounting of who we can be, what we can offer — even if it’s outside our comfort zone, even if it’s something that never occurred to us before.

There’s only one Person who can tell us what God wants from us. Do we even think to ask Him?

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Talk God about your place here and then to Father Jim or Steve Triner about how you can be more active here at St. Andrew's. Your help is wanted and valuable!

Janice Triner has set up a display of shoeboxes for Operation Christmas Child. Everyone is encouraged to take one or more. Please fill them with school supplies, hygiene items, clothes, toys, anything you think might be useful to a child in a third world country. Remember, no liquids, no candy, no toothpaste.

She will also soon have a sheet available if anyone is interested in building a shoebox online. It's fun and easy and only costs $25. Last year more than 400,000 shoeboxes were built online. These boxes go to countries where it is dangerous to be a Christian.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Who are the little ones? They are the many and varied faces of people who see hope in Jesus' message about the Kingdom of God. They have come to believe that there is a different world to be had: a place where everyone has a home, all have an equal opportunity to share in God's bountiful gifts and blessings, where justice reigns, truth presides, and peace fills hearts. The little ones are those who may have left their former views behind, perhaps even their former lives to follow Jesus and believe in the Beatitudes as God's world vision. They are the poor, the marginalized, the women and men at the well, the Zacchaeus' looking for Jesus from a tree, the blind who want to see, and the lame who want to walk. They are the lepers who have been told that they are unclean, and the ones who have learned that suffering and death are nothing to fear. These are all of the little ones. Jesus gathers and protects them as a shepherd guards his sheep. Whoever causes one of these little ones to sin deserves the greatest wrath. Be more concerned about what people are doing than where they came from.

VATICAN INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION OF THE EUCHARISTIC MIRACLES OF THE WORLD COMING TO ST. PETER'S

The Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist is the most sublime treasure of our Catholic faith. It is the manifestation par excellence of His promise, "I am with you always, to the close of the age" (Mt 28:20).

Evidence of His abiding presence among us is beautifully chronicled in an edifying collection of 160 panels featuring photographs, narrative, and maps. They depict 126 different Vatican-approved miracles occurring in 17 countries over a span of nearly 1300 years.

St. Peter's Parish in Mountain Home is pleased to host this exhibition from Sunday, October 17th through Saturday, October 31st in the Hall in the Life Center, Monday-Friday 8:00 a.m. - 6:00 p.m. and Saturdays 2:00 - 6:00 p.m.

Experience for yourself the way these miracles have inspired countless Catholics over the centuries and deepened their love the the Eucharist.

This is an informal, self-guided exhibit you may visit as often as you wish before or after weekend Mass or during the hours above. We hope you will avail yourself of this unique opportunity and invite family and friends to do the same.

GET READY FOR TOOTSIE ROLLS!

The annual Knights of Columbus Campaign for the Developmentally Disabled will be September 30, October 1 & 2 at both Harp's stores and Town & Country in Mountain Home, and there is a collection can in the back of the church as well. Talk to Floyd Crawford to get involved.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Question: What do Catholics believe about the resurrection of the dead?

Answer: Every Sunday, we proclaim in the Creed that we believe "in the resurrection of the body." Does that mean Christ's resurrection or our own? Both! Jesus' resurrection is part of the work of salvation, but it's also a sign of what's to come. While death separates our bodies and our souls, this was not the intention of God when He first created us. It's an effect of original sin. At the end of time, our bodies and our souls will be reunited.

Scientifically, we may have questions about this, since bodies decompose over the course of centuries. Or what about the saints, whose relics are spread around the earth? How the resurrection will happen is a mystery. But we know that our resurrected body will be our body. If we are in heaven, our body will be in a glorified state. Some theologians speculate what this glorification will be like based on Jesus' resurrected body.

Will we be able to walk through walls? Will we eat, since Jesus broke bread with his disciples? We don't really know the answers to these questions. We do know, however, that we will be free from the effects of the fall (such as sickness and pain) and physical defects that occurred in life. Christ redeems us as whole persons, body and soul!

Pro-Life Prayer Chain will be held nationally Sunday, October 3, 2021

Marion County Right To Life requests your presence in front of the Yellville Courthouse from 2-3 PM.

The Life Chain is a peaceful and prayerful public witness of pro-life individuals standing or sitting for 60 minutes praying for our nation and for an end to abortion.

Everyone is invited; encourage your children to come as well. If standing is difficult, bring a chair with you. Posters will be provided. We hope to see you there!

DRIVER TO MTN. HOME IS NEEDED

We need someone to drive a parishioner to Mountain Home from Yellville for radiation treatments for cancer. If you can help and lift a wheelchair into your car, even just once a week, please talk to Floyd Crawford.

We need someone to be in charge of Parish Life gatherings once Covid is over. You've organized family Thanksgivings; this is similar but we're usually better behaved than your drunk cousin. Talk to Steve about this important position.

We welcome all visitors to St. Andrew's Catholic Church this weekend.

We hope you enjoy your stay in the Ozarks, and may God protect you on your trip home.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

The disciples started to feel proud because they thought they were the "in" group of friends of Jesus. One day they saw a complete stranger working powerful miracles in the name of Jesus. The disciples told the stranger to stop because he was not part of their special group. The disciples should have encouraged him instead.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK - What Do You Think?

First Reading - Early in their Exodus journey, Moses taught the young Joshua an important lesson on avoiding jealousy and trusting the Lord's protective care. How do you avoid the trap of jealousy and envy?

Second Reading - James speaks of the trappings and dangers of excessive wealth. What do you think should be the believer's proper feelings toward money?

Gospel Reading - Jesus warns his disciples against the danger of causing other believers to sin. What do you think would cause a Christian to want to make others sin?

PRAYER

Dear God, help me to work side-by-side with other people who love Jesus, no matter who they are.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Pray for missionaries around the world who teach others about Jesus.
