PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of St. Andrew's Catholic Church is to carry on the ministry of Jesus Christ, as members of His living body, the Church, to bring the Kingdom of God into the world through evangelization, worship, religious education, and service in our families, in our parish, and in our community.

YOU ARE IMPORTANT

You are an important part of St. Andrew's Parish, and if you've ever felt a little left out when you see people scurrying around before and after Mass, now is the time for you to join them. We need sacristans, musicians and singers, lectors, extraordinary ministers of Communion, altar servers, ushers, greeters, nursing home visitors, gathering organizers (Parish Life) and more. If you are curious about any of these ministries, even if you want to wait until Covid is done to participate, please see or call Steve Triner at 870-321-2773. Join us as we serve the Lord. You are wanted.

Once again this year we will not be providing Thanksgiving or Christmas baskets from our church. We are asking people to contribute money toward the purchase of food baskets for Thanksgiving through the Yellville Area Food Closet.

Make your donation in the jar on the table in the vestibule.

November 15-22 is National Collection Week for Operation Christmas Child. Boxes are available in the vestibule. OR, you can pack a shoebox online for $25. The link to use for that is samaritanaspurse.org/buildonline Shoeboxes that are filled online are sent to sensitive countries where Christians are often in danger.

Please remember in your prayers...

Please add prayers for all those who have fallen victim to the variants of the Covid virus. Please pray for people in war-torn lands, those being harmed because of their faith, victims of shootings and other violence, and those experiencing the effects of natural disasters.

We pray for the happy repose of the souls of all those we have lost this past year. Names with asterisks are not parishioners but are someone close to one of us.

Our Lord told St. Gertrude the Great that the following prayer would release 1,000 Souls from Purgatory each time it is said. The prayer was later extended to include living sinners as well.

Eternal Father, I offer Thee the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the holy souls in purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal Church, those in my own home, and within my family. Amen.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments

The Daily Examen of Stewardship

"Stewardship" can get a bum rap these days. When folks hear the term "stewardship" from the pulpit, their eyes tend to kind of glaze over. "Here's Father asking for more money," they groan inwardly, "Get ready for the passing of the pledge cards."

Christ refutes this idea when he gives us what he calls the greatest commandments — instructing us to love God and to love our neighbor. Now, Christ is a man who chose his words carefully. He meant exactly what he said — and he didn't say that the greatest commandments were to tithe and to give money to charity. If he had wanted stewardship to be only about money, he would have said so.

Sometimes we are indeed called to show our love for God and neighbor in the form of a financial gift. But the concept of Everyday Stewardship — living mindfully in prayer, grateful for our blessings, and gracious to our neighbors, committed to God, and accountable to each other — is about so much more.

I propose a twist on the long-held practice of the "Daily Examen" — a pious devotion wherein, at day's end, we go over the events of the last 24 hours and discern God's will. A Daily Examen of Stewardship might contain questions like this:

- ❖ How did I love God today? In whom did I love Him?
- ❖ What did God give me today? With whom did I share it? What did I give to Him?
- ❖ To whom did I reach out today? Who reached out to me?
- ❖ Where was God on my list of priorities today? First? Second? Third, fourth?

DRIVER TO MTN. HOME IS NEEDED

We need someone to drive a parishioner to Mountain Home from Yellville for radiation treatments for cancer. If you can help and lift a wheelchair into your car, even just once a week, please talk to Floyd Crawford.

We welcome all visitors to St. Andrew's Catholic Church this weekend. We hope you enjoy your stay in the Ozarks, and may God protect you on your trip home.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

The man in today's Gospel reading was a scribe. It was his job to write out copies of God's word. Many of the scribes did not care for Jesus, but this one man really understood the heart of God's law-love. To love God and to love others is more important than anything else.

Count the objects in each group. Draw lines to match the number at the left to the groups on the right.

PRAYER

Dear God, help us to love you and love others the way you want us to.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Pretend you are a scribe. Copy Mark 12:32-33 in your own handwriting. Hang it up in a place where you will read it every day.

Fit the words from this message into the boxes below

You are not far from God's kingdom

On a sheet of your own paper, draw a picture Moses telling the people, "Hear, O Israel! The Lord is our God, the Lord alone!" like he did in today's first reading.
