PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

The mission of St. Andrew's Catholic Church is to carry on the ministry of Jesus Christ, as members of His living body, the Church, to bring the Kingdom of God into the world through evangelization, worship, religious education, and service in our families, in our parish, and in our community.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Question:

Why do we place ashes on our forehead each Ash Wednesday?

Answer:

Ashes are rich in spiritual symbolism. We recall in the second chapter of Genesis, when the human person is fashioned "out of the dust of the ground" and receives the breath of life (Genesis

2:7). In death, a person returns to the ground from which we came. The ancient Hebrews used ashes as a sign of repentance, reminding themselves that God is God and we are not.

As the minister places ashes on our forehead, we hear either "remember that you are dust and unto dust you shall return" or "turn away from sin and be faithful to the Gospel." When we receive ashes, we remember our own mortality. We're reminded that we have limited time on this earth and we ought to make the best use of it that we can! People are in need of love, care, and compassion. We all need to continually rediscover the love of God. The Gospel invites every person in every stage of life to encounter and imitate Jesus here and now. The forty days of Lent are the perfect time to assess our own awareness of these realities.

HAVE A HEART VOLUNTEER APPRECIATION

The women of the CCW will be assembling gift bags for the volunteers at Have a Heart pet shelter after Mass today. We would appreciate donations of small packages of chips, cookies, crackers and candy. Thanks for helping Have A Heart!

SERMON ON THE MOUNT

Beginning March 2, Ash Wednesday, we will begin a 4 week Bible study on The Sermon on the Mount. Class will start at 10 and end around 11:30.

WELCOME NEWBIES!

We've noticed you new folks joining us for Mass on Sundays, and we're so happy to see you and your families. We hope you will fill out the new member tag on page 4 and become official members of the St. Andrew's family!

IT'S KINDNESS MONTH!

February is Kindness Month in our community. Try to do one act of kindness every day. Here are some more ideas:

Let someone cut in front of you in line, and smile when you do!

- ❖ Thank someone you appreciate, like a parent, teacher, or coworker. Write them a card if you can.
- ❖ Donate some dog/cat treats to the Pet Shelter.
- ❖ Smile at someone who looks sad.
- ❖ Make amends with someone you have wronged.
- ❖ Pray for someone.

DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO IS ILL?

Please let us know if you know of someone who's sick so we can get them on the prayer list. We're a family and if one person is ill, we all care deeply about their welfare, physical and spiritual. Please send an email to standrewprayer@gmail.com or talk to Steve, Denise, or Floyd if you know anyone who needs our prayers or any Catholic who needs a visit and/or Communion.

SUBSCRIBE TO Arkansas Catholic

You might have overheard this conversation in our parish. One person asks, "How did you know that?" The other person replies, "I read it in Arkansas Catholic."

The print edition is delivered to your mailbox every week. Subscriptions are only $30 a year ($28 for seniors). Pick up a subscription envelope in the pews, visit arkansas-catholic.org or call (501) 664-0125.

HELP THE YELLVILLE FOOD PANTRY

The food pantry needs donations, and in January they like to receive donations of soup, chili, and stew. They can always use canned meats (but not canned salmon), soups, and other foods. The box for donations is right by the front door. Please pop a couple of extra items into your cart for the pantry. Recent articles have informed us that Hamburger Helper and other kits may need perishable foods that recipients don't have or can't afford.

Arkansas Catholic is running a contest to choose a photo for the cover of the 2023 diocesan directory. Any Arkansas photographer 18 or older, professional or amateur, can enter their photo of a Catholic church or institution in the diocese. March 11 is the deadline to enter the contest. Complete rules and an official entry form are available at arkansas-catholic.org. For more information, email Emily Roberts at eroberts@dolr.org.

We must restore hope to young people, help the old, be open to the future, spread love. Be poor among the poor. We need to include the excluded and preach peace. – Pope Francis

Being Catholic ...

I see people doing several different kinds of bows and genuflections.

When do I do what?

Catholics are asked to show reverence and adoration whenever passing in front of the tabernacle, where the Eucharist is reserved. This is typically done by genuflecting, although if unable, a profound bow from the waist is acceptable. Be purposeful. Touch your knee to the floor in reverence. Genuflect toward the tabernacle when you first enter the Church/your pew and when you leave. If it's too hard physically, try to express reverence in some other way. When the Eucharist is exposed — that is, not inside the closed tabernacle — you should also genuflect. When you pass by the altar, if the tabernacle is not behind it, you should bow from the waist, because the altar represents Christ. Catholics bow from the waist during the Nicene Creed at the words "by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man," in recognition that God humbled himself becoming like us in all things but sin. On the Annunciation and Christmas, Catholics celebrate that reality, and so are to genuflect at these words, rather than bowing. Bow your head whenever anyone says the holy names of Jesus or Mary, or the saint of the day.

PROJECT RACHEL MINISTRY

Hope & Healing, a 12-week online Bible study just for women who have been wounded by abortion, will begin March 15, meeting on Tuesday evenings from 6-7pm* via Zoom. This free Project Rachel Ministry opportunity will explore the impact of past abortion decisions on our lives and help us discover what we need to do to heal from these traumatic experiences.

On this journey of self-discovery and empowerment we will meet 12 amazing women who, just like us, are wives, mothers, daughters, sisters, and friends. Together, we will learn how these women faced the same struggles and challenges that we face, and through their example gain insight into what we can do to make changes in our own lives so that we can move forward from lingering grief, shame, guilt, fear, and pain, to acceptance, forgiveness, trust, peace, love, and joy.

Any woman, anywhere, can participate from the comfort of her own space, anonymously if desired, with a virtual group of soon-to-be friends. Call or text our CONFIDENTIAL direct phone line 501-663-0996 for more information. Registration is required by March 8, 2022.

**Other meeting days/times may be available. Please call if interested.*

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Jesus wants you to look carefully at your own words and behavior. If you call your sister selfish, Jesus wants you to make sure you are not selfish. If you fuss at your brother because his room is messy, Jesus wants you to make sure your room is not messy. Do not judge others. Remember that everyone makes mistakes. God forgives you and wants you to forgive yourself and others.
