HELP THE YELVILLE FOOD PANTRY

The food pantry needs donations, and in April they like to receive donations of canned chicken

. They can always use canned meats (but not canned salmon), soups, and other foods. The box for donations is right by the front door. Please pop a couple of extra items into your cart for the pantry. Recent articles have informed us that Hamburger Helper and other kits may need perishable foods that recipients don't have or can't afford.

- Peanut butter
- Canned soup
- Canned fruit
- Canned vegetables
- Canned stew
- Canned fish
- Canned beans
- Pasta and rice

I WANT TO BE AN ACOLYTE

Yay, you! A person who would like to be an altar server should fulfill the following requirements:

- Candidates should have made their First Communion.
- Candidates should know how to genuflect correctly.
- Candidates should know how to make the sign of the Cross.
- Candidates can be of any gender.

What will you do during Mass? You may carry the Cross or walk behind it with the other ministers, hold the Missal for Father to read from, assist in the washing of hands by the priest, and assist the priest and deacon as necessary.

WELCOME NEW FOLKS TO ST. ANDREW'S!

Don't forget to say hello to anyone you haven't seen before in Mass and to encourage them to be an active part of St. Andrew's like you are!

Being Catholic ...

Is the resurrection real or just something, like folklore, we've been told to believe?

Christianity is not just a philosophy or a moral system; the entirety of the Christian faith depends on certain incredible historical facts. If certain things did not actually happen, then the whole religion is useless.

One of the most important is the real, bodily resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. The resurrection of Christ confirmed Christ's identity as the Son of God and his defeat over Satan, sin, and death. Everything hinges on this miracle.

So did it really happen? Here are 3 historical facts about the resurrection that all skeptics must reckon with:

1) The Body Is Nowhere to Be Found

The easiest way someone in the 1st century (or even today) could prove that Jesus did not rise from the dead would be to simply produce the body.

After his death on the cross, Jesus' body was placed in a tomb, a giant stone was rolled in front of the entrance, the stone was sealed, and Roman guards were placed there to protect it. And yet his body vanished without a trace.

2) There Were Hundreds of Eye-Witnesses to the Risen Jesus

Christians don't believe in the resurrection of Jesus merely because his body disappeared. No, the risen Jesus actually appeared to people. And we're not talking about just his inner circle of Apostles – perhaps to those most “fanatically” devoted to him – we're talking about hundreds of people.

St. Paul records in his first letter to the Corinthians: “He was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, and then to the Twelve. After that, he appeared to more than five hundred of the brothers and sisters at the same time, most of whom are still living, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles, and last of all he appeared to me also, as to one abnormally born.” (1 Cor 15.4-8)

Scholars believe St. Paul wrote this letter somewhere around A.D. 54, which explains why he says “most of whom are still living.” In other words, if he wasn't telling the truth, he could have easily be proven wrong.

3) Those Witnesses Were Willing to Die Terrible Deaths for What They Knew to Be the Truth

Some skeptics argue that Jesus' followers somehow stole his body and then lied about having seen the risen Christ. But if that's the case, then why would they be willing to leave behind their religious communities, families, friends, livelihoods, and – for many – their lives in gruesome ways, all for a lie?

The answer of course is that they didn't: they really had seen the risen Christ, and they knew that this changed everything – so much so that they were willing to abandon everything for him.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Mary Magdalene was surprised when she found the empty tomb of Jesus. She ran and told Peter and John that his body was gone. Peter and John ran to the tomb. They found no body, just strips of cloth. One piece was the cloth that covered the face of Jesus. Peter and John knew that Jesus was not in the grave, even though they did not understand what it meant to rise from the dead.

Read today's Gospel and color this picture.

PRAYER

Jesus, you died and rose from the dead so I can share your life on earth and in heaven. Thank you.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

I will tell someone that Jesus is alive.

Place each blue word of this passage in the boxes

The Scriptures

said Jesus would rise to life.

On your own paper, draw how surprised Peter and John were when Mary Magdalene showed them Jesus' empty tomb.
