DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO IS ILL?

Please let us know if you know of someone who's sick so we can get them on the prayer list. We're a family and if one person is ill, we all care deeply about their welfare, physical and spiritual. Please send an email to standrewprayer@gmail.com or talk to Steve, Denise, or Floyd if you know anyone who needs our prayers or any Catholic who needs a visit and/or Communion.

HELP THE YELLVILLE FOOD PANTRY

The food pantry needs donations, and in March they like to receive donations of peanut butter and jelly. They can always use canned meats (but not canned salmon), soups, and other foods. The box for donations is right by the front door. Please pop a couple of extra items into your cart for the pantry. Recent articles have informed us that Hamburger Helper and other kits may need perishable foods that recipients don't have or can't afford.

- Peanut butter
- Canned fruit
- Canned stew
- Canned beans
- Canned soup
- Canned vegetables
- Canned fish
- Pasta and rice

HOLY WEEK EVENT

During Holy Week the Ecumenical Council presents services Monday-Thursday. For the last two years it's been done online, but this year we're going back to the presentations with a light lunch served by the churches involved. St. Andrew's day is Wednesday, and if you'd like to help serve and tidy up, please talk to Donna Hassman.

Being Catholic ...

"Fallen Away" - Now what?

A comedian once said that Catholicism is the only religion that when you become an adult, you quit. Many of us take time off from attending Mass and taking the sacraments, and a significant percentage of those people think they are now beyond God's help.

Do you know someone in this position? Are you someone in this position? You should know that if you are baptized Catholic, you ARE Catholic. Those who have been away from the Faith for a while may want to attend RICA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) classes to refresh their memories. To be truthful, those RICA classes can be useful even to those faithful who attend faithfully, but haven't had classes since they were kids. A lot has changed since many of us learned the responses in Latin.

Do you want to know more? Talk to Father who is available for 45 minutes in the confessional before every Mass. Or you can chat with Steve or Janice Triner. Everyone is welcome here at St. Andrew's, and like last week's prodigal son, they will be welcomed back joyfully. Spread the word.

Easter Flower Donations

Envelopes are available in the vestibule, and the donation is $10 for a memorial or honorarium for friends and family.

Hospitality Sunday

Join us after Mass for coffee and donuts in the church hall.

IN MEMORIAM

Funeral Mass for Fred Kernan will be Monday, April 4 at St. Peter's in Mountain Home at 10 a.m.

I WANT TO BE A SACRISTAN

Yay, you! If you want to be a sacristan, talk to Steve or Janice Triner. What do you have to be or do? Duties vary greatly by community, but the basic jobs here at St. Andrew's are these:

- Preparing the Holy Eucharist for the celebration of the mass. This includes readying the wine, water, and bread and putting them in place for the start of mass.
- Setting up the church.
- And after Mass, cleaning the utensils and general tidying up.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Mercy makes us attentive to the voice of truth. We do not know what ever happened to the woman caught in adultery, after her encounter with Jesus. It is hoped that she found what she needed to feel true sorrow. What we do know is that through his gentle and wise persuasiveness, Jesus puts the Pharisees in their place and opens the door to grace for this child of God. Being exploited and used to test and discredit Jesus, she who is publicly known to be a sinner is now the victim. Jesus never tolerates people being used and immediately rushes to her defense. As the author of mercy, Jesus became her advocate and opened the door for her to God's love. Jesus also stands between us and the harsh, judgmental, and often hurtful stance of our world. He invites us to grace, to leave the sin that binds us, and for which we are often criticized, and pursue a life of virtue and freedom.

In the words of Pope Francis – How do you want to fast this Lent?

- Fast from hurting words and say kind words.
- Fast from sadness and be filled with gratitude.
- Fast from anger and be filled with patience.
- Fast from pessimism and be filled with hope.
- Fast from worries and trust in God.
- Fast from complaints and contemplate simplicity.
- Fast from pressures and be prayerful.
- Fast from bitterness and fill your heart with joy.
- Fast from selfishness and be compassionate to others.
- Fast from grudges and be reconciled.
- Fast from words and be silent so you can listen.

The Catholic Diocese of Little Rock is committed to protecting children and young people. If you are aware of abuse or have been abused by clerics, Church volunteers, or Church workers, please contact the State of Arkansas Hotline for Crimes against Children at 1-800-482-5964 and the Chancellor for Canonical Affairs, Dr. Matthew A.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

When we do something wrong, God does not want to punish us. God just wants us to stop, learn from our mistake, and make better choices next time. Try to remember that the next time you catch a friend sinning. Instead of tattling, talk to your friend, and gently help your friend do what is right.

PRAYER

Dear God, help me to be kind to my friends when they make mistakes. Help me remember that sometimes I make bad choices, too.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Name one thing you have done wrong. Jesus can forgive you for your mistakes. Try to forgive other people, too.

Read today's Gospel and color this picture.

On your own paper, draw a picture of Jesus right next to you, helping you after you have done something wrong.

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares:
You may go now, but don't sin anymore.

Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments

What's your comfort zone: emotionally, professionally, personally? We all have one. But did you realize that you can have one spiritually? Think about what you like and what you don't particularly enjoy when it comes to church, prayer, and liturgy. We all have "those songs" we crinkle our noses at, either because they're too modern or too old-fashioned. We all have "those people" in our parish whose ideas we aren't so sure about, whether that's because they're trying to change too much or because they seem always to be looking toward the past. Also, when was the last time you sat on the OTHER side of the church during Mass?

As much as we may not want to admit it, even (and especially) as people of God, we get deeply attached to our own personal comfort zones — and we tend to view those outside with distrust.

But what if God had a comfort zone? What if He viewed us, in our sin and our misery, as too "far away" from Himself to reach? Thankfully, our God is a God who "opens a way in the sea and a path in the mighty waters." Our God is a God who does "something new." The call to stewardship demands that we look outside of ourselves. Our thoughts, our opinions, our preferences — these things are not important to the steward. Even if there is a vast, dry desert of discord, or a seemingly endless wasteland of opposing views between us and our neighbor, God challenges us to "make a way" out of our comfort zone, that together we may announce His praise.
