PARISH LIFE

We need someone to be in charge of Parish Life gatherings once Covid is over. Mary and Melissa Garrison will continue donuts each month, but you are needed to organize the work for Thanksgiving and Christmas. You've organized family
Thanksgivings; this is similar, but we're usually better behaved than your nephews with Nerf guns. Talk to Steve about this important position.

SIGN UP TO GO TO GEORGE GUSSY'S ORDINATION

There is a sign up sheet in the vestibule if you are interested in going to George's ordination on June 25. We'll need riders as well as drivers.

The Diocese of Little Rock welcomes you to join us for the Ordination of 46 Permanent Deacons on June 11, 2022, or June 25, 2022; both ordinations will be livestreamed on the Diocesan Homepage channel at <https://www.youtube.com/c/cdolr>. Since seating is very limited at Christ the King, Little Rock, we encourage you to join this historic event with the livestream link.

June 11, 2022 - 10:00 a.m. at Christ the King, Little Rock

June 25, 2022 - 10:00 a.m. at St. Vincent de Paul, Rogers

COLLECTION BASKETS

Our collections baskets are still on the tables in the back of the church. Please remember they are there and to put any cash donations for any second collections in the striped baskets.

Our Lord told St. Gertrude the Great that the following prayer would release 1,000 Souls from Purgatory each time it is said. The prayer was later extended to include living sinners as well.

Eternal Father, I offer Thee the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the holy souls in purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal Church, those in my own home, and within my family. Amen.

Being Catholic ...

Next week is Father Jim's last week as our pastor. What does it mean that he's moving on to being a senior priest?

The best explanation I've found about this topic comes from the Archdiocese of Detroit - <https://info.aod.org/articles/what-do-senior-priests-do-in-their-retirement-years>

The ordained priesthood is a way of life of prayer and service from which a priest does not retire in the usual sense. Although a priest may retire from administrative duties and from the demands of a full-time assignment, such as a parish pastor or administrator, he continues the lifelong priestly ministry to which he dedicated himself at ordination. For this reason, a man in this status is referred to as an emeritus priest.

Senior Priests live a priestly life and carry out priestly functions according to their health and desires. When a priest reaches emeritus priest status, he may choose to live where he wishes.

Archdiocesan policies regarding priestly retirement are oriented not as a means of transitioning away from ministry, but rather facilitate continuing service by and for priests in their later years, considering their needs and those of the Church. The faithful throughout the Archdiocese benefit greatly from the presence and service of senior priests, especially from the wisdom of their experience.

So while we will miss Father Jim greatly, we can be happy that he will still be available when Father Ben is "out of pocket". Please keep Father Jim in your prayers for a happy senior priesthood, and let's thank God for sending him to us.

HELP THE YELLVILLE FOOD CLOSET

The food pantry needs donations, and in June they like to receive donations of canned tuna. The box for donations is right by the front door. Please pop a couple of extra items into your cart for the pantry. Recent articles have informed us that Hamburger Helper and other kits may need perishable foods that recipients don't have or can't afford.

- Peanut butter
- Canned fruit
- Canned stew
- Canned beans
- Canned soup
- Canned vegetables
- Canned fish
- Pasta and rice

VIGIL CANDLES

If you wish to light a 6-day vigil candle, a donation of at least $3 is requested. This donation almost covers the cost of the candles.

We welcome all visitors to St. Andrew's Catholic Church this weekend. We hope you enjoy your stay in the Ozarks, and may God protect you on your trip home.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

The disciples must have missed spending time with Jesus after he went back to heaven. But they knew that the Holy Spirit would always be with them, helping them remember what Jesus taught them. The disciples kept learning about God and kept growing closer to him. The Holy Spirit will help you remember Jesus, too.

Read today's Gospel and color this picture.

PRAYER

Dear God, thank you for sending the Holy Spirit.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Pray to the Holy Spirit. Ask him to help you learn more about Jesus.

How many Holy Spirits can you count here?

Draw the Holy Spirit on your shoulder teaching you how to ride your bike.

There are fourteen Spirits
