HELP THE YELLVILLE FOOD CLOSET

The food pantry needs donations, and in August they like to receive donations of canned tuna. It's almost time for school, too, so snack sized foods for lunch boxes will be welcome. The box for donations is right by the front door. Please pop a couple of extra items into your cart for the pantry. Did you know you could support The Yellville Area Food Closet at no cost to you by shopping on Amazon?

- Instead of typing amazon.com, type smile.amazon.com on your computer.
- Sign in like you normally would, and select The Yellville Area Food Closet as your organization. Prime users are included, so this doesn't effect your membership. Every little bit helps out!

Celebrate!

HELP PROTECT BABIES WHOSE PARENTS CAN'T KEEP THEM

The Safe Haven Baby Box is a device where parents can legally give up a newborn who is no more than 30 days old. As long as the baby has not been abused or neglected, the parent may anonymously use a Safe Haven Baby Box without fear of arrest or prosecution. Currently, a parent can surrender an infant at the hospital emergency room, police departments, and manned fire stations.

There are already six designated baby boxes in Arkansas, and the St. Peter the Fisherman Health Ministry, along with the Knights of Columbus would like to bring a Safe Haven Baby Box to the Twin Lakes Area. A location has been selected and a goal of $16,000 has been set.

Look for the jar in the vestibule after Mass on July 10th. Donations will be accepted at that time. Please make checks payable to Knights of Columbus Charities, Inc. and include "Safe Haven Baby Box" on the memo line.

VIGIL CANDLES

If you wish to light a 6-day vigil candle, a donation of at least $3 is requested. This donation almost covers the cost of the candles.

MEET A OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD SHOEBOX RECIPIENT

Evangeline was born in the Philippines, where her family lived near a dump area. She had to skip school and babysit her younger siblings while her mom worked seven days a week. Evangeline received a shoebox gift when she was 13 years old. Its contents met many needs for Evangeline and her family. To hear more how a shoebox gift assured that God loved her and her siblings, please come hear Evangeline speak: Friday, September 9 in Mountain Home, 6:30 p.m. at East Side Baptist Church, 718 E. 9th Street. Saturday, September 10, at Real Ministries, 111 S. Spring Street in Harrison at 9:30 a.m. with 10:30 Workshop and lunch at noon. RSVP required - phone Shari at 870-404-1030

My child, conduct your affairs with humility, and you will be loved more than a giver of gifts. – Sirach 3:17

Being Catholic ...

"What do you call that thing that the priest is wearing?"

This is a commonly asked question that Catholics ask because they do not know what to call the clothing that is being worn by the clergy. The purpose of this course is to educate the faithful in the area of vestments.

The word "vestment" comes from the Latin. It simply means clothing. Now, it is generally used to represent the garments that are worn by the ministers of religion in the performance of their sacred duties.

Vestments are a sacramental. That means they are set apart and blessed by the Church to excite good thoughts and to increase devotion in those who see and those who use them. They are the uniform of the priest when he is "on duty," while he is exercising the functions of his ministry and using the sacred powers which he received at his ordination. The clothing that is worn by the priest while he is not "on duty," it is not called vestments.

The Mass vestments were originally ordinary garments of the ancient Roman world. While the fashions of dressing have changed with the passing centuries, the priest continued to wear at the altar the ancient Roman costume of his predecessors.

Thus, the priest, vested for mass, is a wonderful witness to the historical continuity of the Catholic Church with the primitive Church of Rome, founded by the Prince of the Apostles.

THE ALB The alb is a long, white linen liturgical vestment with tapered sleeves. It is a garment (or robe) that is worn by the priest during the Holy Mass. It symbolizes the innocence and purity that should adorn the soul of the priest who ascends the altar. While it is white in the Western Church, it can be of any color in the Eastern Church.

THE AMICE The amice is a liturgical vestment consisting of an oblong piece of white linen that is worn around the neck and shoulders and partly under the alb. It measures 36" x 24" with two 36" strings of twill tape. Originally, the purpose of the amice was as a neckcloth to protect the valuable chasuble and stole. Until 1972, the amice was an obligatory vestment. Now it is optional, provided that the alb worn by the priest does cover all of his clothes underneath. If his clothes are not all covered, an amice must still be used. The amice is associated with the "helm of salvation." While putting it on, the priest would say, "Lord, give me strength to conquer the temptations of the devil."

THE CHASUBLE The chasuble is the vestment that is put on over all the others during Liturgical services. Originally this was a very full garment, shaped like a bell and reaching almost to the feet all the way round. During a bad artistic period, the 18th and 19th century especially, the Chasuble suffered much from a process of shortening a stiffening. Today there is a return to the historical and beautiful, ample, nicely draping Chasubles. The Chasuble symbolizes the virtue of charity, and the yoke of unselfish service for the Lord, which the priest assumes at ordination.

THE CINCTURE The cincture is the cord used as a belt to gird the Alb. It symbolizes the virtues of chastity and continence (meaning "the exercise of self constraint in sexual matters") required of the priest. It comes in many colors.

THE STOLE Roman magistrates wore a long scarf when engaged in their official duties, just as our judges wear a court gown. Whenever a priest celebrates Mass or administers the Sacraments, he wears the stole as a sign that he is occupied with an official priestly duty. When placing the stole about his neck, in vesting for Mass, the priest begs God to give him on the last day the 'garment of immortality' that was forfeited by our sinful first parents.

THE SURPLICE The surplice is a knee-length, white vestment worn over the choir cassock, but by priests, deacons, and seminarians rather than bishops. It is typically simple in design, but can be very fancy. It is distinct from the rochet not in the level of decoration, but in the sleeve: the sleeve of a rochet, like an alb, fits flush against the choir cassock; the sleeve of a surplice is fuller, and often bell-shaped.

RCIA COMING TO YELLEVILLE!

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults "RCIA" is a formation process through which adults enter the Catholic Church, but it is also an opportunity for the people of God to grow in understanding and spiritual depth regardless of their stage in the life of faith.

In September, Saint Andrew's will begin RCIA classes for any adult who wants to learn more about our faith. Please consider participating not only to learn more about the faith, but also to foster community within our parish. Also, if you would like to be one of the catechists/teachers of RCIA, your help in this ministry would be greatly appreciated and guiding resources will be provided. Please speak with Father Ben or Steve if you are interested in joining the teaching rotation. Potential catechists will be meeting with Father Ben on September 4 to choose which topic will be best for you.

Watch for further announcements. We're still considering days and times so if you have a preference, please contact Steve or Janice Triner or Father Ben to let them know what days and times fit best into your schedule.

Kids' Corner

SHARING THE GOSPEL

If you act bossy, you might get your way, but you won't make many friends. Jesus shared a secret about making friends. When you treat other kids with kindness, they will want to be your friends. Instead of telling other kids what to do, ask other kids to choose a game. If you want to play tag with other kids, offer to be "it" first. If it is time to line up to go outside, offer to go to the back of the line and let other kids in front of you.

Read today's Gospel and color this picture.

PRAYER

Dear God, help me to be a good friend.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

When you sit down with your family for dinner tonight, ask if you can serve the food. You may surprise your parents and get some pretty big smiles from them.

Find the shadow chair that matched the clear one answer is number three

On your own paper, draw a picture of you and your friends playing together and taking turns.
