HELP THE YELLVILLE FOOD CLOSET

The food pantry needs donations, and in September they like to receive donations of peanut butter and jelly. It's almost time for school, too, so snack sized foods for lunch boxes will be welcome. The box for donations is right by the front door. Please pop a couple of extra items into your cart for the pantry. Other foods to donate include:

- Peanut butter
- Canned fruit
- Canned stew
- Canned beans
- Canned soup
- Canned vegetables
- Canned fish
- Pasta and rice

Did you know you could support The Yellville Area Food Closet at no cost to you by shopping on Amazon?

- Instead of typing amazon.com, type smile.amazon.com on your computer.
- Sign in like you normally would, and select The Yellville Area Food Closet as your organization. Prime users are included, so this doesn't effect your membership. Every little bit helps out!

PRAYER FOR CATECHISTS

Loving Father, we pray today for our catechists. We thank you for their gift of ministry in your Church.

Grant them your wisdom that they may grow in the understanding and teaching of your Word.

Grant them also your love that they may be fruitful heralds of your Word and lead others to love you.

Pour forth your Holy Spirit upon them to grant them wisdom about what is important; knowledge of the truths of faith; understanding of their meaning; right judgement about how to apply them in life; courage to persevere even in the face of adversity; reverence before all that is sacred and holy; and that loving zeal which leads others to a transforming encounter with your Son.

We pray this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Being Catholic ...

Why do we consider these specific four virtues together?

Why are they “cardinal”? What relation do they have to the other virtues?

First, we must clarify what kind of virtues these are. They are moral virtues, also called human virtues—that is, virtues “that govern our actions, order our passions, and guide our conduct according to reason and faith” (Catechism, 1804). Moral virtues can be attained through reason and repetitive action, even in a soul that doesn’t have the benefit of baptism and the sacraments. Grace elevates and perfects them, and gives us strength to persevere in them.

The moral virtues are distinct from the theological virtues—faith, hope, and charity—which cannot be gained by human effort and repetition. They are pure gifts from God, infused directly into our souls at Baptism. Once we receive them, we can grow in these virtues through our actions, but no amount of “action” can gain them in a soul that does not have them.

We’ll talk more about the theological virtues in a future Get Fed, but for now, let’s get back to the cardinal virtues. The word “cardinal” comes from the Latin word cardo, which means “hinge.” The four cardinal virtues are the “hinge” upon which all other moral virtues turn.

Prudence helps us to choose the best course of action in every situation. It is called the “charioteer” of the virtues because it directs and guides us in their application.

Justice helps us perform our duties towards God, our neighbor, and society, giving each what is his due.

Fortitude gives us the strength to endure hardship and overcome fear in the pursuit of the good.

Temperance helps us regulate our sense appetites and our use of created goods, and to use them in a good way.

All the moral virtues are grouped around prudence, justice, fortitude, and temperance. They are derived from these four and lead back to them. These four are the root and foundation from which the others grow and blossom.

FAMILY RETREAT - SEPTEMBER 11 (English)

River Valley parishes of St. John in Russellville, St. Augustine in Dardanelle and St. Andrew in Danville are collaborating to host a family retreat at St. John Church in Russellville September 10th (Spanish) and 11th (English). The retreat will be led by Sr. Johanna and Sr. Jane Dominic, Dominican sisters of St. Cecilia of Nashville, TN. We are happy to host them and to offer this beautiful retreat to families in our area. Because we know the importance of bringing families together, River Valley parishes would like to extend this retreat invitation to you. Topics of discussion include: How to have a conversation with God, Sacred Times and Sacred Spaces followed by activities and ending with Eucharistic Benediction. This retreat is based on the book “A Short Guide to Praying as a Family”. The cost is $25 per family or $15 for individuals. The donation includes a copy of the book and lunch. We hope you join us as we continue to strengthen families through the gift of prayer. To register or for more information, please contact Cynthia Solis at 479-967-3699.

Our Lord told St. Gertrude the Great that the following prayer would release 1,000 Souls from Purgatory each time it is said. The prayer was later extended to include living sinners as well.

Eternal Father, I offer Thee the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the holy souls in purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal Church, those in my own home, and within my family. Amen.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Love God more than yourself. This means you will give up something you dearly love for him. When you have only one candy bar, God wants you to share it with your sister. When you have two pencils and two notebooks, God wants you to share with a student who has none. If your grandmother and grandfather play games and read to you, God wants you to share them with children who have no grandparents.

PRAYER

Lord, help me share the things I prize most.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Prayer for Students

Dear Jesus,
 Thank you for the gift of learning!
 I want to grow closer to you in everything I do at school.
 In math and science, help me to see your beautiful plan in the world.
 Help me to discover new stories and values as I read and write.
 In arts and music, help me to be creative.
 In sports, help me to treat my teammates and my opponents fairly.
 Help me to learn new skills in technology.
 Jesus, you are the perfect teacher.
 Help me to listen with open ears, an open heart, and an open mind to all my teachers at school.
 Help me to treat my classmates with care, kindness, and respect.
 Thank you, Jesus, for school!
 Amen.
