PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

The mission of St. Andrew's Catholic Church is to carry on the ministry of Jesus Christ, as members of His living body, the Church, to bring the Kingdom of God into the world through evangelization, worship, religious education, and service in our families, in our parish, and in our community.

LIVE THE LITURGY

To be humble means to see ourselves as we are. It comes with the recognition that we are never perfect, better than another, or free of sin. The humble person knows their faults and failings as well as their successes and triumphs. They also realize that they are nothing without God, especially God's mercy. The humble one knows who they are, who they can be, and how they have fallen short. Being desperately in love with God, they know how they have sometimes given in to their desires rather than God's will, almost with a sense of embarrassment. Being justified in our relationship with God is not about a list of the good things we do and the bad things we don't. We are vindicated when we realize how totally dependent we are upon God's gratuitous, abundant, and unconditional love. It is a gift we often take for granted and is often unappreciated.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY 2022 SECOND COLLECTION TODAY

World Mission Sunday, our annual worldwide Eucharistic celebration for the Missions and missionaries of the world, will be celebrated on October 23 this year. This collection on the next-to-last Sunday in October is a unique, global effort for the entire Church to provide for the building up of over one thousand local churches in Asia and Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe. Through the work of these churches, and their witness to Christ, the poor receive practical help and experience God's love and mercy, His hope and peace.

Christmas will be here before we know it, and with Christmas comes the Knights of Columbus fruitcake sale. Floyd Crawford is selling delicious Abbey fruitcakes for $35 each.

Being Catholic ...

My daughter and future son-in-law want to marry in the forest, but I remember hearing Catholic weddings have to happen in church.

Am I right or being an old stick-in-the-mud?

In the Catholic faith, the church is considered a sacred place where Christ is present, and since matrimony is believed to be a covenant with God, the only place a wedding ceremony can be administered is indoors, inside a church "to emphasize the sanctity of the ceremony itself," explains Father Paul Scalia of the Catholic Diocese of Arlington, VA. So, unlike many other religious and civil ceremonies, Catholic weddings do not allow outdoor venues. If you've always wanted an outdoor component to your wedding, the alfresco portion of your event may have to be reserved for the reception.

Luckily, Catholic churches are majestic so lean into the beauty of a church wedding!

Another major difference from other ceremonies is that, in Catholic weddings, couples don't write and recite personalized vows. "We have set vows because marriage is something very specific and, for us, the vows make the marriage," says Scalia. (Similarly, those iconic wedding scenes in movies where a priest asks if there are any objections to the wedding? Those never happen in Catholic ceremonies!) From <https://www.brides.com/story/essential-details-getting-married-catholic-church>

Enthronement of the Sacred Heart ...

"is an act of adoration that publicly declares Him as 'Lord of the Household'. It is more than setting aside a dwelling place for Him in a building; it is the welcoming of the Reign of Christ into the heart of the family, couple or the person that dwells within that place. It has an impact on families that carries over to society and becomes the basis for spreading the Social Reign of our King and Savior."

On September 29th, Joanne Frey in Dennard, AR honored Him with the installation of a blessed image of His Sacred Heart in her home. Enthronement is in line with the Church's wishes to see acts of charity, peace and justice move from the family circle to all society. Congratulations to Joanne and all parishioners who have received the Sacred Heart Enthronement in their home. If you are interested in the Enthronement of the Sacred Heart in your home, contact the Legion of Mary. Talk to Floyd Crawford if you want to know more about how you can be part of the important ministry.

GET IT IN THE BULLETIN

If you have information, news, meetings you need parishioners to know about, please get it to Denise Jorgensen as soon as possible. The bulletin is assembled on Monday and Tuesday.

THE JESUS PRAYER

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner.

CENTERING PRAYER RETREAT

Consider giving yourself the GIFT of a Centering Prayer Retreat at Subiaco Monastery, November 7-11, 2022. The retreat will have ample periods of SILENCE, three Prayer/Meditation periods per day, and some teaching on the TRANSFORMATION of the false (or lower) self. A recommended book to read before the retreat is The Untethered Soul by Michael Singer. This is not a requirement but I will be sharing ideas from Michael's material. The Monastery/Retreat Center location is in a peaceful, pastoral setting in the Arkansas River Valley.

A retreat is a wonderful way to strengthen a meditation practice and thus bring more of the spiritual practice into our lives. Retreatants will be best served by having a daily practice of Centering Prayer/meditation prior to attending (please discuss with Nick if you have questions in this regard. Retreatants will be asked to commit to attending the entire retreat. You've thought about giving yourself this kind of GIFT.... if not NOW....when?

- Pasta and rice

Did you know you could support The Yellville Area Food Closet at no cost to you by shopping on Amazon? Instead of typing amazon.com, type smile.amazon.com on your computer. Sign in like you normally would, and select The Yellville Area Food Closet as your organization. Prime users are included, so this doesn't effect your membership. Every little bit helps out!

SAFETY FIRST

If you are in the church during the week, please make sure all lights you turned on are turned off and all doors are securely closed and locked before you leave.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

If you have ever thought that you were better than somebody else, you are not alone. Even grown-ups think that way sometimes. The truth is, you really are not better than anyone else. You sin. You make mistakes, just like other people do. No matter how big or how small you think your mistakes are, they still make God angry. Instead of looking down on other people, remember your own mistakes. Ask God to forgive you.

PRAYER

Dear God, I am so sorry I ever thought I was better than anybody else. Please forgive me.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

I will ask God for forgiveness morning, noon, and night.

Find and circle 8 differences in these two

On your own paper, draw a picture of something you did wrong. Then draw a picture of yourself asking God to forgive you.

WANNA BE AN ALTAR SERVER?

We need to have more servers, so we can rotate through and give our servers a day off now and then. If you are interested, talk to Fr. Ben or Steve Triner.
