Being Catholic ...

What is Jesus' blood type? And how can we possibly know this information?

It's easy to forget, sometimes, that Jesus has a human nature.

Yet it's fascinating to think that He has such attributes as eye color, hair color, and skin tone. His Most Precious Blood, too, is real human blood, and as such belongs to one of eight different types: A+, B+, AB+, O+, or one of the corresponding negative types.

According to available evidence, Jesus' blood is type AB. We aren't sure if it's positive or negative.

Isn't it marvelous to think that Jesus' Precious Blood is human blood – and has a type?

How do we know? How, you ask, could we possibly know such a specific medical detail?

The evidence lies in the scientific tests that have been carried out on several different Eucharistic miracles and Passion relics in recent decades. Dr. Franco Serafini delves into some of these instances in A Cardiologist Examines Jesus: The Stunning Science Behind Eucharistic Miracles.

Dr. Serafini—an Italian cardiologist—reports that all those specimens that were tested for blood type returned a result of AB, a blood type whose rarity supports their authenticity. AB occurs in only about 5% of the current human population. (Insufficient tests have been performed to decide definitively the Rh factor—that is, if it is + or -.)

Dr. Serafini explains that it would be nearly impossible to randomly replicate AB across these different specimens. Not only are they distinct examples from different places and historical epochs, but some of them, significantly, have been handed down from eras in which blood types had not yet been discovered: such as the Passion relics, and the 8th-century Eucharistic miracle of Lanciano.

These are just a few of the amazing facts explained by Dr. Serafini in his captivating book A Cardiologist Examines Jesus: The Stunning Science Behind Eucharistic Miracles. Do we know, for example, what kind of tissue is found in these miracles? Is the tissue alive or dead? What does it tell us about the Man it came from? The science really will stun you—and renew your faith in the Miracle that happens on our altars every day.

FLIPPIN HIGH SCHOOL BAND CHEESECAKE

Band cheesecakes will be delivered next Sunday after Mass. See Wade Strong to pick up your order.

THE JESUS PRAYER

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner.

WE NEED MORE EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS WE NEED YOU

The administration of Holy Communion during the Mass is truly a ministry. It is the ministry of bringing the sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ to the People of God. It is also the ministry of witnessing to faith in the real presence of Christ in the action of sharing in the Eucharistic meal of Christ's sacrifice. The ministry of the Eucharist should, therefore, be treated with utmost dignity and reverence.

Baptized and Confirmed Catholics, fifteen years of age or older, are eligible for this ministry. They should be persons who sincerely try to live the Gospel message in their communal and individual lives. They should faithfully participate in the Sunday Eucharist and with God's grace strive to live their faith in every aspect of their lives.

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion may wear their regular clothing in keeping with their primary role as members of the assembly.

Talk to Father Ben, Steve Triner, or Cindy Nixon to get on the roster.

HOW ARE WE SERVING OUR COMMUNITY THIS THANKSGIVING?

St. Andrew's will not be handing out Thanksgiving baskets again this year, but we are fully supporting the Yellville Food Closet as they take over this essential service to our neighbors in our community.

Donations to the food closet box in the vestibule are still very welcome now and always.

The food closet is planning once again to distribute turkeys and blessing bags to those in need on Nov 19. Tickets are available at the food closet on a first come basis on Oct 27, Nov 3 and Nov 10. All persons MUST present a ticket before receiving a turkey.

As in the past, we are asking members of the community to support our efforts thru purchase of a blessing bag at Harps in Yellville. Blessing bag donations are now being sold at Harps for $10. The bags for distribution on Nov 19 with the turkeys will include: 2 cans of corn, 2 cans of green beans, gravy (mix or jar), Brown-n-serve rolls, potato flakes, cranberry sauce/jelly, a can of sweet potato, vanilla pudding, a can of mixed fruit.

Thanks in advance to all who support this effort to make Thanksgiving a day to truly be thankful!

Our Lord told St. Gertrude the Great that the following prayer would release 1,000 Souls from Purgatory each time it is said. The prayer was later extended to include living sinners as well.

Eternal Father, I offer Thee the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the holy souls in purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal Church, those in my own home, and within my family. Amen.

Kids' Corner

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Sometimes this world can be a scary place in which to live. Fighting, sickness, and storms can kill a lot of people. Jesus says that when those things happen around you, do not be afraid. Even when you die, you can still live forever with God. You have heaven to look forward to. When scary things happen around you, tell the people you love about Jesus. Tell them they can live forever with Jesus, too, so they don't need to be afraid.

Read today's Gospel and color this picture

On your own paper, draw a picture of God sitting in his big rocking chair listening to you and reassuring you.

PRAYER

Dear God, help me to be brave and tell other people about you.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

WANNA BE AN ALTAR SERVER?

We need to have more servers, so we can rotate through and give our servers a day off now and then. If you are interested, talk to Fr. Ben or Steve Triner.

Thanksgiving Dinner Next Week Sunday, November 20

Please remember to sign up on the sheets in the vestibule or the hall. We need to know how many are coming and what you'll bring.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading - The prophet Malachi speaks of God's judgment at the end of time and the importance of fearing the Lord. What do you think it means to "fear" the Lord?

Second Reading - Paul talks about himself (and Silvanus and Timothy) as a "model" on how to behave for the believers in Thessalonica. Who are some family members that you think model the faith well?

Gospel Reading - Jesus forewarned his disciples that because of their faith in him, they would be persecuted, even "handed over by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends ... hated by all because of my name." How would you react if your family and friends hated you because of your belief in Jesus?
