WHO INVENTED THE STATIONS OF THE CROSS?

The first Stations of the Cross were walked by Jesus himself on the way to Calvary. Known as the "Via Dolorosa" ("The Way of Suffering") or the "Via Crucis" ("The Way of the Cross"), it was marked out from the earliest times and was a traditional walk for pilgrims who came to Jerusalem. The early Christians in Jerusalem would walk the same pathway that Jesus walked, pausing for reflection and prayer. Later, when Christians could not travel to the Holy Land, artistic depictions of "The Way of the Cross" were set up in churches, or outside and Christians would walk from station to station, reading the Gospel account of the Passion, or simply praying and reflecting on each event. While the content or place of each station had changed, the intention was to make a mini-pilgrimage and follow--literally--in the footsteps of Jesus.

This devotion became better known in the Middle Ages, and the Franciscans are credited with its spread. Lent is a time when many people make the Stations and some churches present Passion plays or Living Stations. But anyone can pray the Stations at any time. It is a simple and personal reflection on the passion of Jesus and what it means to us. ©LPi

WHY ARE ITEMS VEILED IN CHURCH NOW?

Customarily, we veil holy things at the end of Lent. We veil tabernacles (a nod to the veil of the holy of holies in the Jerusalem Temple, Ex 26:31-33), and we veil chalices. But the veils also focus us, simplifying our ornate churches, drawing our attention to focus on the readings and prepare our senses to experience Easter.

In one of the most moving gestures of the Catholic funeral Mass, family members cover the caskets of their loved ones with a funeral pall. I think of this special covering when I see the veiled statues.

Being in a church with veiled statues is to be surrounded by the mystery of death. The harrowing figures recall that for now, on this side of eternity, a veil hangs between us and those we love. How we long for the veil to be pulled away!

Vision is union. And that's why the veils are such a powerful reminder. We were not made for the here and now. The here and now is filled with veils and mystery. But we were made for that day when we shall see, not as through a veil, but face to face (cf. 2 Cor 3:18).

Whether you find the veils eerie or nostalgic, they should be one thing above all: soul-stirring. Signs of the solemn days to come, they promise that our Blessed Lord has conquered even the great sorrow of death.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

If your sister is very sick, pray for her. Ask God to send his healing power to make your sister feel better. Decorate a card to make her feel better. Fix her a bowl of chicken noodle soup on a tray with a few crackers. Put a cool damp cloth on her forehead to keep her fever down. Put a colorful blanket on her to keep her warm. Your loving care will help her feel better.
