Please leave donations for these residents in the box across the entry from the food closet donation box. If you'd like to be one of the St. Andrew's visitors, talk to Floyd Crawford.

Being Catholic ...

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

I have a necklace that originally belonged to my great-grandmother. I don't really know much about the man who gave it to her, most of those details have been lost to time. But I know that he wanted to marry her, and that she refused, and it had something to do with religion — ultimately, he did not share her faith. And while I've certainly seen many interfaith couples have loving and successful marriages, in this particular case, my great-grandmother discerned that this would not be one of those marriages.

Like I said, I don't have many details about this man, but I know that she felt she couldn't marry him because it might jeopardize the souls of her children, and therefore the souls of their children, and their children after them — me. She turned him down because of me.

My great-grandmother never sold that necklace, not even when the Great Depression further reduced her financial circumstances. She kept it, and she gave it to her daughter, who gave it to her daughter, who gave it to me. The necklace is always given with a warning: there is something worse than being poor, worse than being scared, worse even than being desperate. Worse than all of these things is separation from God.

When I wear this necklace, I think about my grandmother and this man she possibly loved a hundred years ago. I think of the many decisions we make every day — large and small, good and bad — that reverberate down through the generations in ways we cannot, at the time, imagine. I think of the God who knows every hair on my head. ©LPi

"And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna." — Matthew 10:28

CAN YOU HELP?

We have a request from another church in the area. A gentleman needs help getting his leaky roof repaired. He just lost one of his jobs, and he's supporting his wife, two grandchildren, and a great niece. If you have roof skills, know someone who works cheap but well, or would like to donate, please see Denise Jorgensen and she will get everything over to the person organizing this.

RETREAT IN DAILY LIFE

October 2023 through May 2024

Retreat in Daily Life (RIDL) is the common designation of the 19th Annotation that St. Ignatius of Loyola wrote into his Spiritual Exercises. These spiritual exercises evolved through St. Ignatius' own experience as he transformed from a soldier to a servant of our loving God. As you mirror his prayerful journey, following the life, teachings, death and resurrection of Jesus you will prayerfully encounter a loving God and desire to become all you were created to be.

The fee for the retreat is $490 plus a director fee that must be coordinated with your Spiritual Director. In keeping with the Rule of Benedict governing hospitality, those who have been blessed with more may wish to contribute more, and those who have less give less so that "all may be at peace in the house of God." Scholarships are available. If you are interested in RIDL, contact one of the Spiritual Directors listed below to schedule an initial interview. Interviews will take place July 1 through August 31. To inquire about a scholarship, or for more information, contact our Spiritual Direct, Janice Triner or Lainie Snider, (806) 584-4160, lainiesnider@yahoo.com

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Counting the hairs on your head can get tiresome and confusing. However, God knows exactly how many you have. Your body works on its own. You do not have to tell your heart to beat or your lungs to fill with air. Every day your body needs exercise to make all parts work well. Every day your soul needs pray-er-cise or talking with God. Pray-er-cise will fill you with peace and make your fears go away.

Read today's Gospel and color this picture

PRAYER

Thank you for my body and soul, Lord.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

I will exercise my body and pray-er-cise my soul for 10 minutes every afternoon.

Help the birds find the correct path to Jesus

So don't be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows. – Matthew 10:31

Draw a picture of everyone in your family exercising and/or pray-er-cising together.
